Approved For Release 2003/05/27 : CIA-RDP84B00890R000500100018-5

The Honorable Gerald P. Carmen
 Administrator
 General Services Administration
 Washington, D.C. 20405

Dear Jerry:

DD/A REGISTRY

FILE: Personnel

Thank you for your timely response to my concerns about General Services Administration (GSA) support to the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) Headquarters facility. The solution described in your letter of November 27, 1981 is a positive and promising approach to the staffing problems created by CIA's unusual security requirements.

I would be delighted to arrange a tour of our Headquarters for you, where you can see firsthand the kinds of support your personnel provide and problems that confront them. If you have time, we could have lunch together afterwards. I'll call you after the holiday season to work out an agreeable date for a visit.

Yours,

William J. Casey

Director of Central Intelligence
